As Jesus is going to Jairus' home a woman walks behind him in the crowd. She has been ill for a dozen years and thinks, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Then she touches Jesus' cloak. This article of clothing is probably his "tallith" or prayer shawl. It is worn by every Orthodox Jew during prayer. It is traditionally a long sheet of cloth with tassels on each corner. It is a miniature of the Meeting Tent where Moses worshipped. In a sense it is a private "church" where one can retreat into prayer. The woman came into contact with the church of Jesus and gained healing. (Note the parallel between "tallith" [prayer shawl] and "talitha" [Jesus' word])

St. Ignatius'

PRAYER TO SEND THE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TO THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND

Priest: Almighty and loving Father, as we have received your Son in this Holy Eucharist, we ask you to hear our prayer for our brothers and sisters:

All: Give your healing, Lord, to those who are sick and housebound. May those who take the Body of Christ to them also be a loving sign of our prayers and thoughts. Keep us united with them in all their sufferings so that we will grow together as one community with the presence of Christ among us.
