

PRAYER AT THE SENDING OUT OF THE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TO THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND

Priest: Almighty and loving Father, as we have received your Son in this Holy Eucharist, we ask you to hear our prayer for our brothers and sisters:

All: Give your healing, Lord, to those who are sick and housebound. May those who take the Body of Christ to them also be a loving sign of our prayers and thoughts. Keep us united with them in all their sufferings so that we will grow together as one community with the presence of Christ among us.

My soul is sad, my heart is breaking tonight Could you not watch and comfort me until light?
Am I alone, surrounded only by night?
Could you not watch one hour with me?

Could you not keep awake for one hour with me?
Is it so hard that you should do this for me?
I die for you that you might always be free.
Could you not watch one hour with me?

And so I weep, and there is no-one to hear, I am in pain; will on-one witness my tears?
I am your God,
and as my passion
draws near,
Could you not watch one hour with me?

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you
as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight
and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labour and not to ask for any reward, save that of knowing that I do your will.

An irate woman burst into the baker's shop and said, " I sent my son in for two pounds of cookies this morning, but when I weighed them there was only one pound. I suggest that you check your scales."
The baker looked at her calmly for a moment or two and then replied, " Ma'am, I suggest you weigh your son."

BISHOP TOAL'S EASTER MESSAGE – 2018 As we approach Holy Week I wish you all a fruitful liturgical celebration of the mysteries of Our Lord's passion, death, and resurrection.
As Bishop, I especially look forward to welcoming the clergy and lay faithful of our Diocese to the Cathedral on Holy Thursday for the Mass of Chrism. At the beginning of Lent it was heartening to celebrate the Rite of Election in the Cathedral knowing that a good number of people are preparing to be baptised in our parishes at the Easter Vigil. My prayers are very much with our catechumens in these days before their Baptism, Confirmation and reception of the Eucharist, and with the candidates receiving Confirmation and the Eucharist. At the Mass of Chrism, I bless the Oil of Catechumens and the Sacred Chrism to be used in the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, and these are subsequently used for the first time in the anointing of the catechumens and candidates at the Easter Vigil. I feel a strong link therefore with all receiving the Sacraments at the Vigil and throughout the year. As we relive the Lord's rising from the dead at the Vigil, the celebration of the Sacraments renews our awareness of our participation in the salvation the Lord has gained for us and the gift of his grace poured into our lives. Those of us not being baptised renew our baptismal promises and are blessed with holy water, so that our faith in the Lord's goodness is refreshed and strengthened. We all need to be saved; we cannot do this for ourselves however virtuous we may be; in Baptism and the other Sacraments we receive the saving grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ, our protection from evil in this world and our promise of eternal life in and with God. The joy of Easter, the grace of the Sacraments, the inspiration we all receive from those coming to share our faith, make the Easter Vigil our most important liturgy of the year and I encourage you to be there. In anticipation I wish you all a very Happy Easter and pray for the Lord's blessing upon us all as we give thanks for all the wonderful gifts that we receive from him + Joseph Toal
