Mission Sunday

A message from Missio Scotland, "Today, with Catholics of the world, we are called to offer, at this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through Missio Scotland, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we 'go and invite everyone to the banquet' through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the missions. As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the missions, but your financial assistance offered today, will support missionary priests, religious sisters and brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing love and peace."

Joseph Wilson

Some of you may have heard of a young boy – Joe Wilson from Carfin who died at seventeen whilst attending Taylor High School. Since his death many people have come forward to say they met Joe and found him to be a very thoughtful and caring young person as well as someone who had a strong faith. After his death, a group was formed to continue to share their experiences of Joe and more recently seek recognition by the Church of his life and influence on others. After all the copies were taken last weekend of the booklet titled, 'Joe's Words – excerpts from his diary, containing his thoughts and feelings about his journey of faith, more have been requested for those interested to find out more. Copies of the book 'Joe's Faith – The Life of Joe Wilson,' priced £7 are available from the Parish Stall. More information can also be found online at joesfaith.com
