

PRAYER AT THE SENDING OUT OF THE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TO THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND

Priest: Almighty and loving Father, as we have received your Son in this Holy Eucharist, we ask you to hear our prayer for our brothers and sisters:

All: Give your healing, Lord, to those who are sick and housebound.
May those who take the Body of Christ to them also be a loving sign of our prayers and thoughts.
Keep us united with them in all their sufferings so that we will grow together as one community with the presence of Christ among us.

Please Pray For

Final Hymn:

The sun is shining brightly, the trees are clothed in green.
The beauteous bloom of flowers on every side is seen.
The trees are gold and emerald and all the world is gay.
For it is the month of Mary, the lovely month of May.

There's music in the heavens, the birds are singing there.
And natures songs and praises are sounding through the air.
But we with hearts rejoicing, with joy we sing today.
For it is the month of Mary, the lovely month of May.

Mary dear Mother we sing a hymn to thee, Thou art the Queen of Heaven, and too our queen
shall be O rule us and guide us, unto eternity

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do your will.

THE TRINITY: In today's Liturgy we're swept through time in glorious procession - from before earth and sky were set in place to the coming of the Spirit upon the new creation, the Church. We begin in the heart of the Trinity, as we listen to the testimony of Wisdom in today's First Reading. Eternally begotten, the first-born of God, He is poured forth from of old in the loving delight of the Father. Through Him, the heavens were established, the foundations of the earth fixed. From before the beginning, He was with the Father as His "Craftsman," the artisan by which all things were made. And He took special delight, He tells us, in the crowning glory of God's handiwork - the human race, the "sons of men." In today's Psalm, He comes down from heaven, is made a little lower than the angels, comes among us as "the Son of Man". All things are put under His feet so that He can restore to humanity the glory for which we were made from the beginning, the glory lost by sin. He tasted death that we might be raised to life in the Trinity, that His name might be made glorious over all the earth. Through the Son, we have gained grace and access in the Spirit to the Father, as Paul boasts in today's Epistle. The Spirit, the Love of God, has been poured out into our hearts - a Spirit of adoption, making us children of the Father once more. This is the Spirit that Jesus promises in today's Gospel. His Spirit comes as divine gift and anointing, to guide us to all truth, to show us "the things that are coming," the things that were meant to be from before all ages - that we will find peace and union in God, will share the life of the Trinity, dwell in God as He dwells in us.

The airline had a policy that required the first officer to stand at the door while the passengers exited, smile, and give them a - 'Thanks for flying XYZ airline'. An airline pilot on this particular flight hammered his plane into the runway really hard. In light of his bad landing, he had difficulty looking the passengers in the eye, all the time he thought that a passenger would have a smart comment. However, it seemed that all the passengers were too shell shocked to say anything. Finally, everyone had gotten off except for this little old lady walking with a cane. She said, 'Sonny, mind if I ask you a question?' Why no Ma'am,' said the pilot, 'What is it', the little old lady said, 'Did we land or were we shot down?'
